

Wilwood's new steel-construction cambered drive flange allows for up to two degrees of rear camber with straight-splined axles, providing racers a significant performance advantage.

- Allows for up to two degrees of misalignment
- Heat-treated components for added strength and durability
- Polished internal ball spline for less friction and improved performance
- Black anodized aluminum protective cover
- Works with straight 24-spline axles
- Engineered and manufactured in USA

ORDERING INFORMATION:

PART NUMBER

270-16183

DESCRIPTION

Camber Drive Flange Two Degrees for Wide 5 Racing Hubs